GEORGE the Second, by the Grace of God, King of Great-Britain, France, and Ireland, Defender of the Faith, &c. To all to whom these Presents shall come, Greeting, Whereas William Owen, of Fleetstreet, in our City of London, Bookseller, has, by his Petition, humbly represented unto Us, That he has, with great Care and Labour, and at a considerable Expence, compil'd for the Press, A genuine and authentic Account of all the Fairs in England and Wales, as they have, since the Alteration of the Stile, been settled to be held; and that particular mention is made therein of all Commodities which each of the said Fairs is remarkable for furnishing; And that, as the said Work will undoubtedly be useful to the Public in general, and more especially to Travellers, and the Petitioner has been at great Trouble and Expence in preparing and compiling the same, he therefore humbly prays Us to grant to him, and his Assigns, Our Royal Licence and Permission for the sole Printing and Publishing the same for the Term of Fourteen Years, according to the Statute in that Case made and provided; We being willing to give all due Encouragement to a Work of this Nature, which may be of publick Use and Benefit, are graciously pleased to condescend to his Request; and We do, therefore, by these Presents (so far as may be agreeable to the Statute in that Behalf,) grant unto him the said William Owen, his Heirs, Executors and Assigns, Our Royal Privilege and Licence for the sole Printing, Publishing, and Vending the said Work for the Term of Fourteen Years, to be computed from the Date hereof, strictly forbidding and prohibiting all Our Subjects, within Our Kingdoms and Dominions, to reprint, abridge, or translate the same, or in the like, or any other Volume or Volumes thereof; or to import, buy, vend, utter, or distribute any thereof, reprinted beyond the Seas, during the aforementioned Term of Fourteen Years, without the Consent and Approbation of him the said William Owen, his Heirs, Executors or Assigns, by Writing under his or their Hands and Seals firm and obtained, as they and every of them will answer the contrary at their Peril, whereof the Commissioners and other Officers of Our Customs, the Master, Wardens, and Company of Stationers of Our City of London, and all other Our Officers and Ministers, whom it may concern, are to take Notice that due Obedience be rendered to Our Pleasure herein signified.

TO THE
P U B L I C.

THE collecting of a correct Account of all the Fairs in England and Wales, is attended with such great Difficulties, as none, but those who have undertaken it, can imagine. The Proprietors of this Book, after using unwearied Diligence, and expending great Sums of Money, in printing an Account of Fairs, about three Years since, found, after it was made public, that tho' it was, by far, the most correct and compleat Account ever published; yet, what by the Proprietors of Fairs, at first, after the Alteration of the Stile, fixing their Fairs on one Day in one Year, and on a different one in the next, and by other Misinformations, great Errors were crept into their Account: They, therefore, when they found this, made waste Paper of the unsold Books, being unwilling to injure the Public by farther distributing an incorrect Account of the Fairs. And they found such insuperable Difficulties in collecting a more correct one, that they should have wholly laid aside their Design, had not an HONOURABLE GENTLEMAN, who had Power to command an Account of the Fair-Days from every Place in England and Wales, generously offered his Assistance to the Proprietors of this Book, as perceiving of what great Use a correct Account of Fairs, which might be depended on, would be to the Public. His MAJESTY was likewise pleased to grant to them His ROYAL LETTERS of LICENCE. Thus encouraged and assisted, they again set about the Design, and, after more than two Years spent about it, they have, they flatter themselves, compleated an Account, which is as correct and compleat as such a Thing can be. But if any small Errors have crept in, it is earnestly intreated, that the Proprietors, or Clerks, of any Fairs wrong fix'd, will take the Trouble of sending a Line of better Information to Mr. WILLIAM OWEN, at Temple-Bar, London, by doing of which they will greatly benefit their own Fair, and the Public in general.

A GENUINE

their own Fair, and the Public in general.

Bar, London, by doing of which they will greatly benefit ter Information to Mr. WILLIAM OWEN, at Temple-wrong for it, will take the trouble of sending a List of his night intended, that the Proprietors, or Clerk, of my Fair can be. But if any small Errors have crept in, it is im-Account, which is as correct and complete as such a Thing about it, they have, they have, they have, they have, they have, again for about the Design, and after that time I am sent LETTERS OF LICENCE. This encouraged and assisted, not MAJESTY was likewise pleased to grant to them His ROYAL which might be depended on, would be to the Public. His for viewing of what great Use a correct Account of Fairs, vously offered his Assistance to the Proprietors of this Book, as Fair-Days from every Place in England and Wales, Gen-GENTLEMAN, who had Power to command on Account of the have nobly laid aside their Design, had not an HONOURABLE Disturbance in collecting a more correct one, that they should very Account of the Fairs. And though such respectable looking to inform the Public by further assisting an enter-found this, would make Paper of the English Books being an-sure every one their Account: They therefore, when they are in the way, and by their Disposition, give Fairs being their Part on one Day in one Fair, and on a different Proprietors of it, but only after the Permission of the other correct and complete Account now published: And, what is the after it was made good, that this is true, and that the printing an Account of Fairs, which their Fair has, being concerning the Fair, and extending great sums of Money, is can improve. The Proprietors of this Book, after having re-Disposition, at home, but those who have undertaken it, England and Wales, is necessary, and great good.
